SUPPORTING READERS WITH PHONICS IN KS2

LED BY LAURA HOPE

WEH Literacy Specialist

A focused and practical session exploring how schools can successfully support older pupils who are still developing early reading skills. Learn how to use your Systematic Synthetic Phonics programme effectively to accelerate progress and build reading confidence.

DATE
1 SESSION

17 Nov

TIME

3.45pm-5pm

VENUE

Remote Zoom Session

AUDIENCE

EYFS / Senior Leaders, and Reception Teachers

WHY ATTEND?

Some pupils need more time, precision and targeted teaching to secure early reading. This session provides practical, evidence-informed strategies to help teachers and leaders deliver effective phonics support beyond Key Stage 1 while maintaining high expectations for every learner.

WHY IT MATTERS

Older struggling readers continue to benefit from systematic phonics alongside carefully targeted teaching. Consistency, precision and responsive intervention help pupils close gaps quickly and access the wider curriculum with increasing confidence.

YOU WILL EXPLORE:

- Effective phonics teaching beyond KS1
- Maximising your SSP programme for older readers
- High-quality catch-up and intervention strategies
- Identifying barriers to reading success
- Adapting teaching while maintaining fidelity to SSP

THE IMPACT

Accelerated reading progress • Greater confidence • Effective intervention • Consistent teaching • Improved access to the curriculum
