WHY ATTEND?

Seeing outstanding practice in real classrooms provides powerful professional learning. This showcase offers practical ideas, honest reflection and opportunities to explore how a coherent, whole-school approach to writing can strengthen teaching and improve outcomes for every child.

WHY IT MATTERS

High-quality writing develops through carefully sequenced teaching that combines talk, modelling, guided practice and increasing independence. Consistency across year groups enables pupils to build confidence and achieve greater success as writers.

YOU WILL EXPLORE:

- Writing progression from Early Years to Year 6
- The role of oracy in developing writing
- Teaching transcription and composition
- Modelling, scaffolding and independent writing
- Whiteknights' whole-school writing journey

THE IMPACT

Improved writing practice • Greater teacher confidence • Stronger progression • Better writing outcomes
