KS2 READING FLUENCY: THE BRIDGE TO COMPREHENSION

LED BY LAURA HOPE

WEH Literacy Specialist

Reading fluency is the vital bridge between decoding and comprehension. This sustained programme explores how accuracy, automaticity and prosody enable pupils to read with confidence, freeing them to focus on meaning rather than word recognition.

DATE
3 SESSIONS

26 Nov • 4 Feb
10 Jun

TIME

9.30am-3pm

VENUE

Whiteknights Primary School, Fairlawn Green, Reading, RG2 8EP

AUDIENCE

Reading / Senior Leaders, and KS2 Teachers

WHY ATTEND?

Fluent readers are successful readers. This programme provides practical, classroom-ready strategies that develop fluency through purposeful teaching and repeated practice. Discover how strengthening fluency can improve comprehension, increase confidence and help every pupil become an engaged, independent reader.

WHY IT MATTERS

Fluent reading reduces cognitive load, allowing pupils to focus on understanding what they read. Explicit fluency instruction has been shown to improve comprehension, confidence and long-term reading success.

YOU WILL EXPLORE:

- The three pillars of reading fluency
- Practical strategies including modelled, echo and repeated reading
- Developing prosody and expressive reading
- Supporting pupils at risk of falling behind
- Embedding fluency across the curriculum

THE IMPACT

Confident readers • Improved comprehension • Increased reading stamina • Stronger classroom practice
