6 Oct

TIME
9.30am-3pm

VENUE
MK Conferencing, Strudwick Drive, Oldbrook, Milton Keynes, MK6 2TG

AUDIENCE
Senior Leaders, Reading Leaders and English Leads

WHY ATTEND?

A strong reading culture doesn't happen by accident. This programme supports leaders to develop sustainable approaches to reading for pleasure, combining national expertise with practical strategies that place books, stories and reading communities at the heart of school life.

WHY IT MATTERS

Children who read widely develop stronger vocabulary, broader knowledge and greater motivation to learn. Schools that prioritise reading for pleasure consistently see benefits across literacy, well-being and academic achievement.

YOU WILL EXPLORE:

- Building a whole-school reading culture
- Reading for pleasure in everyday practice
- Developing reading environments
- High-quality literature and reading spines
- Sustaining long-term cultural change

THE IMPACT

Thriving reading culture • Engaged readers • Inspired staff • Sustainable whole-school change
